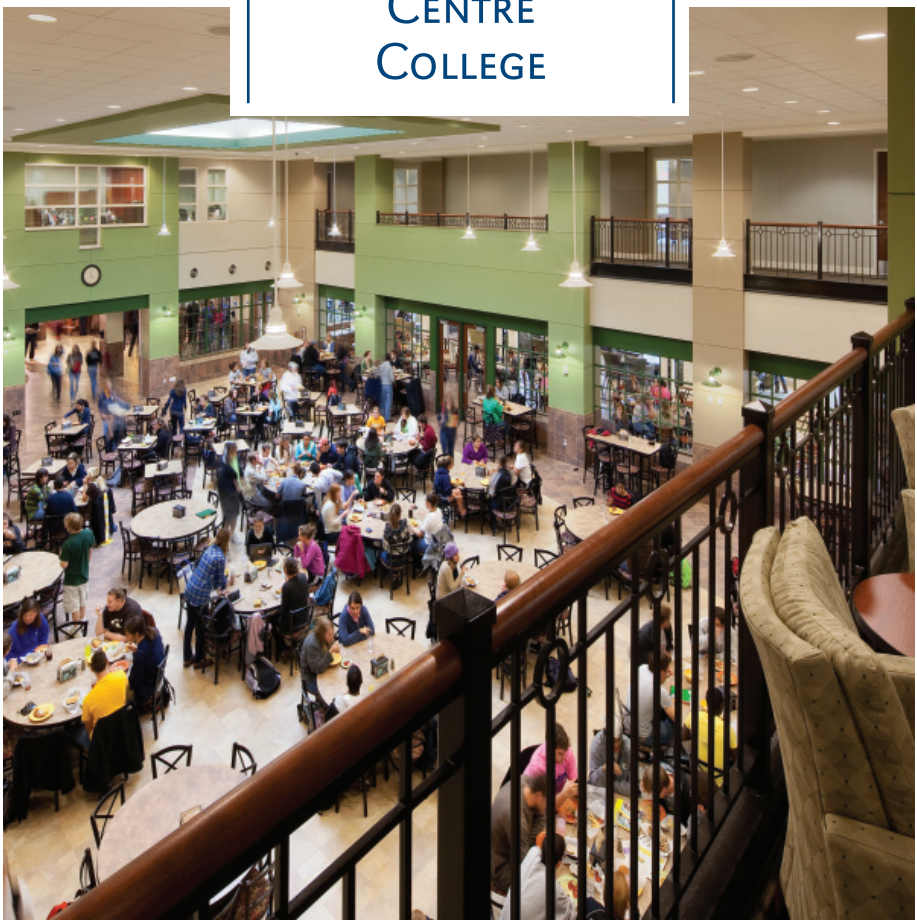
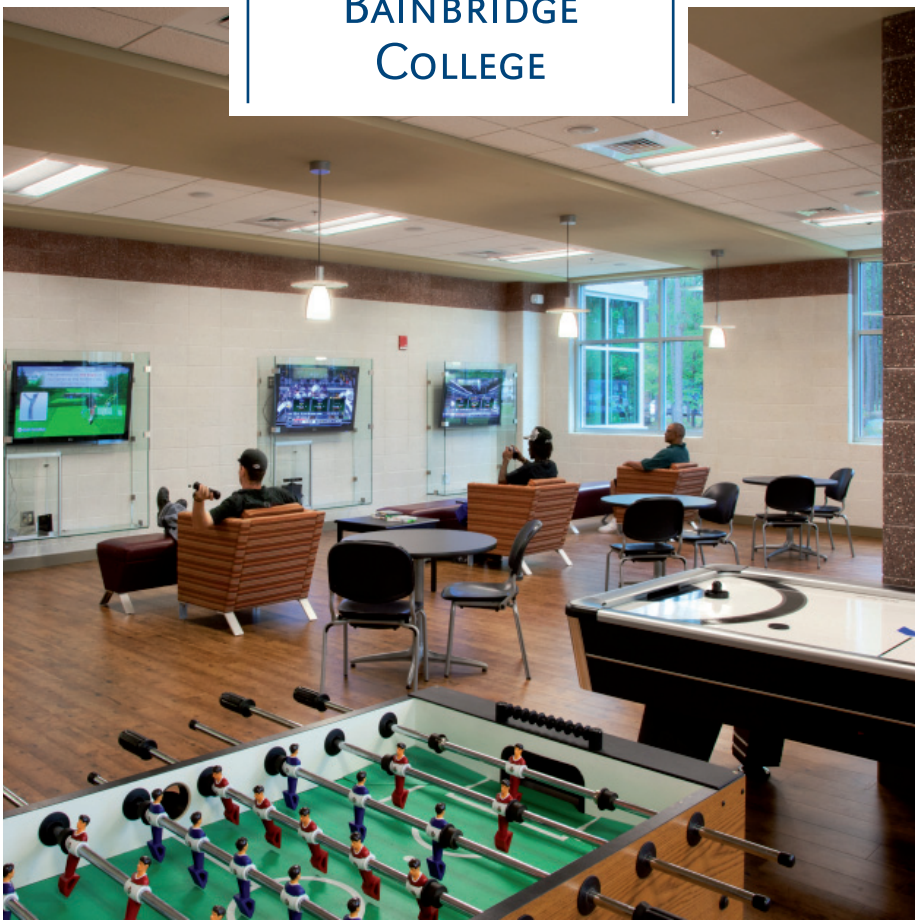
Centre College



Campus Center, Danville, KY

The new Campus Center supports the large on-campus population at Centre College – 98% of students. Designed for comfort and socializing, Hastings+Chivetta incorporated informal seating areas throughout the Center, many surrounding fireplaces and large TVs. The game lounge has pool tables and Wii game systems. The Student Life office suite accommodates student organizations with dividable meeting rooms; conference rooms, private offices, and storage lockers. The food court has a large dining area and private dining rooms with flexible furniture, as well as bistro-style seating areas.

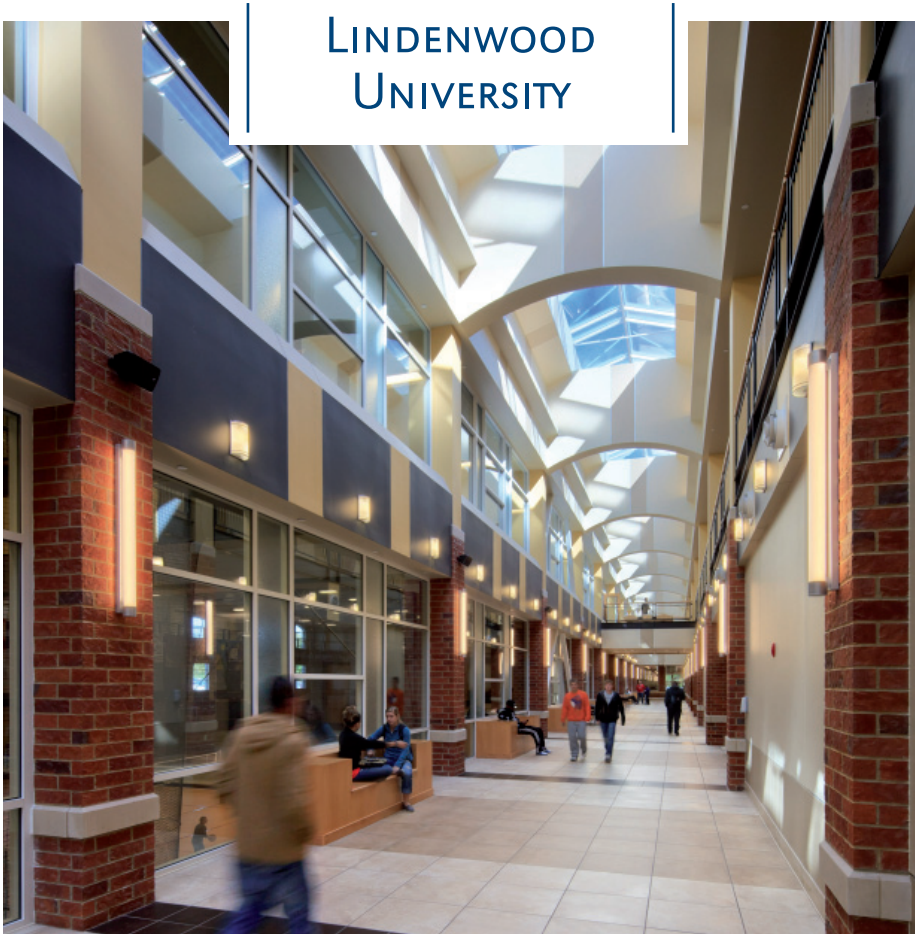
Bainbridge College



Student Center, Bainbridge, GA

The new Bainbridge College Student Center fits well into the campus context and reflects the College's style and natural environment. Hastings+Chivetta's planners and designers incorporated a range of services, including a media center with a computer lab and reading room, bookstore, multipurpose rooms, a game room, student lounge, food court and offices for student government.

Lindenwood University



Evans Commons, St. Charles, MO

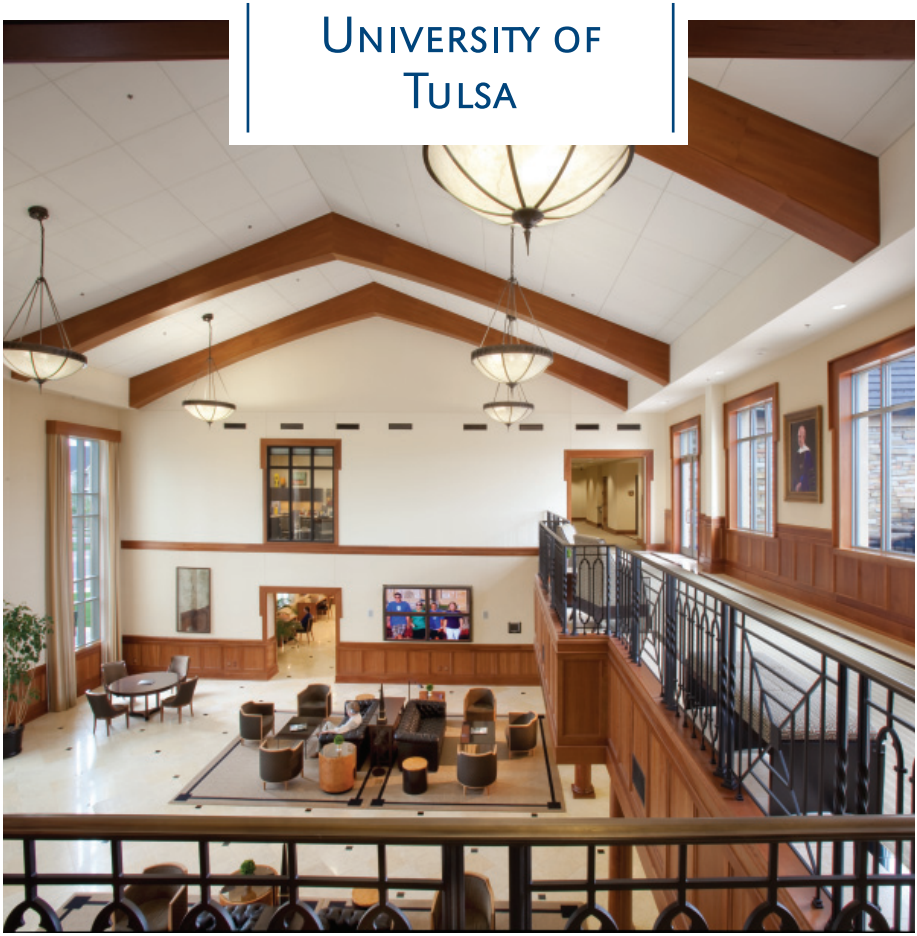
Designed by Hastings+Chivetta, Evans Commons represents a strong University commitment to student services. The food court has a large seating area with a separate small-group dining room. Overlooking the dining area are student lounges, television rooms, a large game room with a music room, conference rooms, and offices for student government and organizations. Other amenities include a student laundry and post office.

University of Nevada, Las Vegas

Student Health and Wellness Center, Las Vegas, NV

Designed by Hastings+Chivetta in association with AECOM Design, the new health and wellness center incorporates a range of student services. Each major component has separate entries and control points to allow for use throughout the day with appropriate levels of access. Amenities include a café, convenience store, health center, and wellness assessment center. Secured separately from the rest of the facility, the Wellness Center houses Student Health, Counseling and Psychological Services. Included are a pharmacy, medical records, lab, exam rooms, conference rooms and a counseling suite.

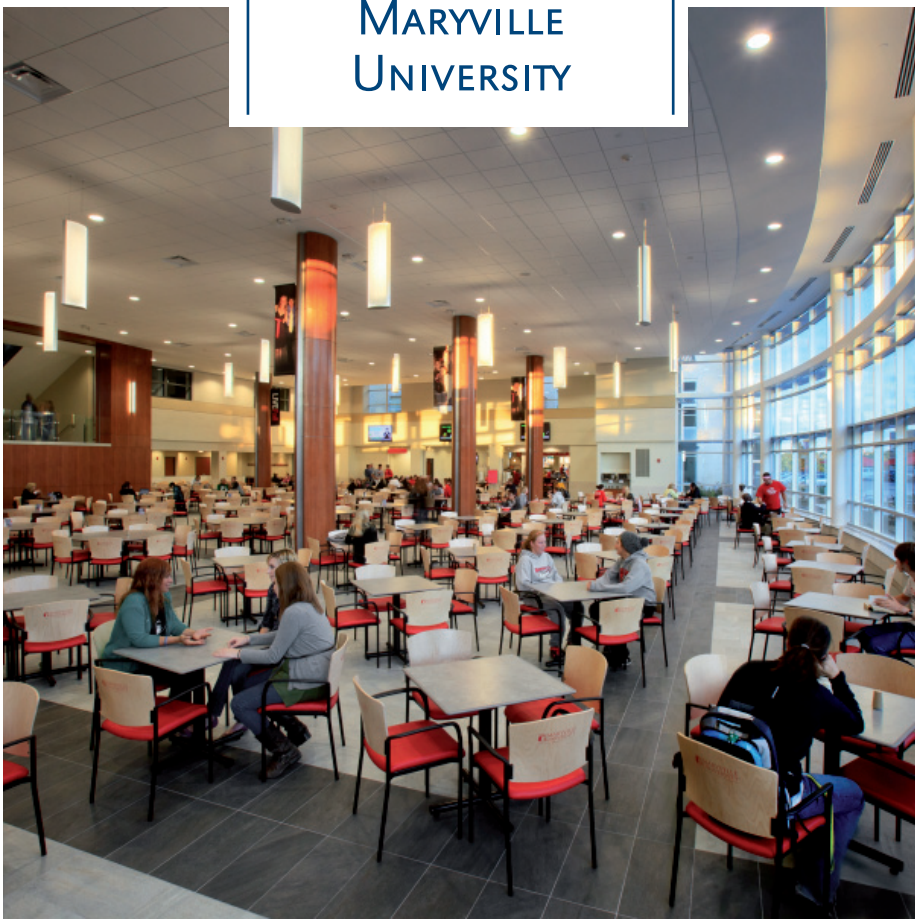
University of Tulsa



Collins Hall Welcome Center, Tulsa, OK

The new two-story welcome center is located at the end of a three-block long campus green which runs perpendicular to a major thoroughfare at the edge of the university. The building signals arrival at the campus with a three-story stone and glass entry tower facing a colorful water fountain. Designed by Hastings+Chivetta, the facility accommodates a range of student services functions, including financial aid and admissions, as well as resources for alumni, potential students, and administrators.

Maryville University



Gander Hall Addition and Renovation, St. Louis, MO

Last renovated in 1991 Maryville University's dining hall was no longer able to support the growing student population. Hastings+Chivetta was engaged to design a foodservice addition and renovation to key spaces in Gander Hall. The new dining facility seats 500 and allows for varied meal plans for residential and commuter students, as well as longer hours of operation. In addition to the new servery and kitchen, new offices and a conference room with an adjacent rooftop terrace were added.

About Us

Leaders in Design for Student Life

Hastings+Chivetta designs student life facilities for colleges and universities across the country that achieve broader institutional goals. We design student-centered spaces that are flexible for future changes in service offerings, reflect institutional brand, and create a second home for students on campus.

We understand the challenges our clients face when competing for funding, and we know how to make the most of limited resources to create state-of-the-art spaces.

We create innovative facilities that support institutional goals for student attraction and retention. Our broad experience, knowledge, collaborative approach and high-quality service, create the cornerstone of our practice:
"Building clients, not just projects."
