UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

HILL CENTER, BIRMINGHAM, AL

The new Hill Center plays a pivotal role in creating a collaborative and connected student community. It welcomes visitors to campus and provides the essential daily services of student life. Key functions in the four-story student center include extensive seating and lounge spaces, the two-story bookstore, dining, the One Stop student services center, Student Publications & Media, Student Organizations, welcome center, multipurpose areas and a large theater, as well as administrative space for the Office of Career and Professional Development, Disability Services and the Transfer Center.

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

STUDENT LIFE CENTER, CORTLAND, NY

State University of New York (SUNY) Cortland retained Hastings+Chivetta, in association with H2L2, to design a new Student Life Center. The facility is the focal point for campus life, housing recreation areas as well as dining, social and meeting spaces. The two-story building is organized in two wings with a common lobby and entrances on both sides. Food service, the Outdoor Pursuits program and retail store are located in the north wing. Student recreation space is located in the south wing along with administrative offices. The project is designed to meet at least LEED Silver certification.

CENTRE COLLEGE

CAMPUS CENTER, DANVILLE, KY

The new Campus Center supports the large on-campus population at Centre College – 98% of students. Designed for comfort and socializing, Hastings+Chivetta incorporated informal seating areas throughout the Center, many surrounding fireplaces and large TVs. The game lounge has pool tables and Wii game systems. The Student Life office suite accommodates student organizations with dividable meeting rooms; conference rooms, private offices, and storage lockers. The food court has a large dining area and private dining rooms with flexible furniture, as well as bistro-style seating areas.

MARYVILLE UNIVERSITY

GANDER HALL ADDITION AND RENOVATION, ST. LOUIS, MO

Last renovated in 1991 Maryville University's dining hall was no longer able to support the growing student population. Hastings+Chivetta was engaged to design a foodservice addition and renovation to key spaces in Gander Hall. The new dining facility seats 500 and allows for varied meal plans for residential and commuter students, as well as longer hours of operation. In addition to the new servery and kitchen, new offices and a conference room with an adjacent rooftop terrace were added.

LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY

EVANS COMMONS, ST. CHARLES, MO

Designed by Hastings+Chivetta, Evans Commons represents a strong University commitment to student services. The food court has a large seating area with a separate small-group dining room. Overlooking the dining area are student lounges, television rooms, a large game room with a music room, conference rooms, and offices for student government and organizations. Other amenities include a student laundry and post office.

MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY COMMONS, DECATUR, IL

The New University Commons will blend the existing 1976 Staley Library with a large addition to the south side of the building. Elements of the library will be incorporated into the new more efficient, forward-thinking design of the Commons which will be a home base and living room for all students at Milliken. In addition to some library functions, the Commons will house many of University's research and innovation programs: Math Center, Writing Center, Media Arts Center, WJMU radio station, New Technologies lab, Oberhelman Center for Leadership Performance, Center for International Education. Student dining will be located in the lower level, and the third floor space will be used for events.

BAINBRIDGE COLLEGE

STUDENT CENTER, BAINBRIDGE, GA

The new Bainbridge College Student Center fits well into the campus context and reflects the College's style and natural environment. Hastings+Chivetta's planners and designers incorporated a range of services, including a media center with a computer lab and reading room, bookstore, multipurpose rooms, a game room, student lounge, food court and offices for student government.

ST. LOUIS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

STUDENT CENTER RENOVATION, ST. LOUIS, MO

In addition to addressing upkeep issues in this 40 year old facility, STLCC stakeholders wanted to upgrade the student center to meet the changing needs of students. Hastings+Chivetta Architects was engaged to determine the extent of work necessary and develop phasing strategies to minimize disruption and coincide with budget cycles. In early 2010, the design team began the study process by meeting with campus stakeholders. Primary areas of concern were separation of the food service and teaching kitchens, relocation of the bookstore and development of a better organized "FIRST STOP" for student admissions.

ABOUT US

LEADERS IN DESIGN FOR STUDENT LIFE

Hastings+Chivetta designs student life facilities for colleges and universities across the country that achieve broader institutional goals. We design student-centered spaces that are flexible for future changes in service offerings, reflect institutional brand, and create a second home for students on campus.

We understand the challenges our clients face when competing for funding, and we know how to make the most of limited resources to create state-of-the-art spaces.

We create innovative facilities that support institutional goals for student attraction and retention. Our broad experience, knowledge, collaborative approach and high-quality service, create the cornerstone of our practice:

“Building clients, not just projects.”
